

TAPATIO LADIES CLUB NEWSLETTER/BULLETIN

February 2023

February is a busy month for activities: Valentine's Day, Mardi Gras, Presidents Day, San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo, Ground Hog Day, and Ash Wednesday. Between the Tapatio Ladies Club and our own Tapatio Resort (refer to their website or Tapatio Talk), lots of activities are going on.

WINE TIME WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 1ST in the La Cascada Patio and Bar from 4:00-6:00. It is always the first Wednesday of every month come rain or shine. Come enjoy happy hour prices for drinks and order your favorite appetizer or get an item "to go" for dinner. New menu is coming out soon. Bring your new neighbor or friend and come and enjoy a nice easy social. No RSVP needed, just come, and have a little fun for a while!

BOOK CLUB FRIDAY FEBRUARY 3RD in the Studio Room (located in the lobby area). It will start at 10:00 for a brief social, and the book being discussed this month is The Lincoln Highway by Amor Towles, the same author of A Gentleman in Moscow. It is a wonderful read about two brothers wanting to go to California on the newly (1954) constructed highway that goes from New York at Times Square to San Francisco California, all the way across the USA. They encounter many events and this book is about compassion, understanding, conflict and endurance. For additional information contact Diane Morrow at dbmorrow@aol.com.

TAPATIO LADIES CLUB LUNCHEON AND PROGRAM WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 15TH in the Cibolo Room. Social is at 11:00, program at 11:30, and luncheon served at 12:00. The program will be presented by Kim, President of the Boerne Chamber of Commerce. She will discuss information about Boerne and how the Chamber promotes commerce here, and she will also talk about opportunities for volunteering. RSVP is a must by the Sunday before on February 12th at noon. You can sign up on the Tapatio Springs Resort website or app, or from "Tapatio Talk" or contact Margo Johnson at 409 789 3818 by phone or text.

If you are interested in becoming a Tapatio Ladies Club officer or one of the chairpersons like social, hospitality, charity, care and concern, newsletter, please let Linda Ferris at ardea@gvtc.com know because there will be a few positions available. A nominating committee will be appointed soon.

The Tapatio updated by-laws will be e mailed to you soon. Please review them as we will vote on these revisions at our February meeting. So, expect to see these in your email boxes soon.

Just FYI to have fun and help fellow seniors in need:

The Kronkosky Place on 17 Old San Antonio Rd. is sponsoring their Empty Bowls project again this year on Saturday February 18th from 11:00-1:00. 100% of all the proceeds go to Meals on Wheels for senior citizens in need in Kendall County. With the purchase of one hand crafted bowl by a local artist, you will receive a serving of soup and bread donated by area restaurants and caterers. For additional information you must read the website below: What a wonderful fun event and a great help to our many seniors.

Thanks to all the Tapatio members who brought items for the Kendall County Women's Shelter last month. The Tapatio Ladies Club also gave the Shelter a $500 monetary donation. This month if some of you could bring some Tide pods and deodorant for men and women. Yes, men, because they have some young teen-age boys who are at the shelter with their moms. If you know Jean Parreira, just give them to her at the luncheon as she volunteers there. Also she will take clothes, purses, scarfs, accessories to their thrift shop. You can also reach Jean at 830 431 0032 for more information.
